You may want to include, family info, part of the world where you live, ministry/business name, hobbies, etc.

Standard Interview Questions*

How long have you been keeping a home?

What is your biggest homemaking strength? Weakness?

Tell us about someone who has helped influence & shape the homemaker you are today.

Biggest homemaking fail? Biggest homemaking win?

Favorite homemaking hack or tip?

What motivated you to create content about home and homemaking?

How does the mission of your business/ministry support homemakers?

What content do you currently offer that would help Art of Home listeners in their everyday homemaking? (If you are promoting a book or course, we can specifically introduce that here)

How do you see homemaking as an art?

How can listeners connect with you and your content/products?

If you have ready-made questions tailored to your current promotion, you can submit those to Allison as well and she will adjust the interview accordingly. Please be prepared to answer the questions above in addition to any other questions you submit.
