Bonus Content: Christmas...FOR ALL INTERVIEWS, but you are free to opt out of this part

The final season of the year will be a mini-season all about Christmas. These episodes will be a compilation of short holiday segments from each of the women I interviewed during the year.

After the main interview, we will record a brief holiday segment using the following questions as guidelines.

- What does a typical Christmas Day look like at your home? (Who is there, what are you eating, etc?) And do you have a special recipe that you always make at Christmas?
- Did you and your household have special holiday traditions? (Caroling, gingerbread house competition, working at a soup kitchen, cutting your own tree, sending Christmas cards...etc.)
- Rapid Fire Q&A
  - Favorite Christmas Song or Carol?
  - Favorite Christmas Movie?
  - Gingerbread or sugar cookie?
  - Fake tree or real?
  - Bows or no Bows?
  - Christmas music before or after Thanksgiving?
- Holidays are hectic. How did you maintain balance in this busy season and keep your focus on what really matters to you and your family?
